Old Business:

Community Garden Update: Dayna Krukowski expressed questions and concerns she had for Ian on the maintenance of the garden. Ian was encouraged to finish the project in a timely manner by Robin LaFrance. Robin LaFrance also took and published pictures for publicity, as well as researching a gardener's agreement and rules to get the project up and running, with the barrels having an assigned number for each gardener. The agreements to be submitted to city and published on the city website.

Cleaning and Repainting City Park Equipment: volunteer project for someone to wax the equipment to make it easier to clean.

Dollar Lake Clean UP; Kathleen Sexton discussed the possibility of the Watershed Council to take on the project of clean up on Dollar Lake. A suggestion was made to move the dumpster to inhibit trash falling out and into the lake. Discussion on families working through the pandemic to help clean the shoreline. Leslie Clark donated a trailer that is in need of repair but could be used to take the city owned small boat to assist in the cleanup. Angelica Arens and Kathleen Sexton volunteered to help organize the cleanup.

Beautification awards: Kathleen Sexton, discussion on how to go about improving the awards process, with a trial and error new online submission form. Posting the winners pictures on Facebook.
